UKRAINE UPDATE

NASHI wishes to inform and update you on your girls. They are still in Poland except for our 2 girls who are taking post-secondary classes – one in university and one at a technical school and both are back in Ukraine. In 2025, we and they are hoping they will be able to return to Ukraine depending on the crisis. The Maple Leaf House is in western Ukraine – close to the Polish border where it is relatively peaceful. However, should our director feel it is still unsafe they will continue their stay in Poland.

Ukraine is a hotspot for human trafficking. Poverty and the war make women and girls especially vulnerable to sex trafficking. Highly developed criminal networks exploit Ukraine's high level of poverty and corruption rendering Ukrainians one of the largest groups of foreign trafficking victims in Europe. NASHI, WITH THE HELP OF OUR DONORS AND VOLUNTEERS are providing our girls with a safe loving environment.

HUMAN TRAFFICKING AND PORNOGRAPHY

Human trafficking is one of the greatest challenges of this century around the world. NASHI knows the extent of trafficking locally and globally. NASHI would like to thank all of you for being part of our fight against human trafficking. We are a small organization but with your help we have made an impact locally and globally. Thank you for being part of our journey.

Human trafficking is:

- a complex crime hard to measure.
- 45 million people are enslaved in the world.
- Girls as young as 5 years old are taken into sex trafficking
- Making $200 billion dollars per year

Pornography in Our Digital World

The availability of pornography exploded with the advent of the internet. It has grown exponentially during the epidemic. One third of internet watching is pornography. It is a massive, lucrative industry and has become a macro-social problem globally.

Facts

- By age twelve 90% of boys have watched porn
- Porn embodies sexual exploitation and teaches violence
- Pornography, prostitution and trafficking are inter-related
- Porn is accessible, anonymous, acceptable, aggressive and addictive

NASHI'S Perogy Paradise 2025 GUEST SPEAKER: WANDA GRAY

Wanda Gray is a born and raised Saskatchewan girl who was intrigued by the mountains and now lives in British Columbia. She is the author of BROKEN BUTTERFLY. It is the true story of the loss of her daughter, Erin. Wanda took us on her emotional and heartfelt tragedy of Erin's life. Erin's journey was one of violent trauma, drug addiction and human trafficking. Her story is not an exception as we learn more about human trafficking and that it is happening in our backyard. Our NASHI guests were spellbound as Wanda recalled the horrific tragedy of Erin. Wanda emphasized the need for action.

This underlines NASHI's motto: DO SOMETHING
